Rehab Center: New River Cove Belize

Description: NEW RIVER COVE, BELIZE
New River Cove is a dual diagnosis facility specializing in helping people achieve and maintain recovery from alcoholism and other addictions. Inspired by ancient Mayan culture and blended with modern architecture, New River Cove was created for the treatment of addictions. Located on 27 acres in the tropical beauty of Belize, New River Cove has an experienced medical, clinical and conditioning staff, as well as excellent facilities, to treat the Mind, Body and Spirit of those in need. There is no place quite like New River Cove!
Our Central American location affords us the opportunity to offer cost effective treatment to our clients. The beautiful grounds provide a setting that promotes spiritual tranquility. Our highly qualified clinical staff are all licensed and/or certified in the United States. We have a working ranch with a stable of world class horses that are incorporated therapeutically into our treatment program. Our onsite 20, 000 square foot fitness complex which incorporates an indoor pool, sauna, steam room, whirlpool and therapeutic massage helps each client to achieve functional fitness. We help empower those suffering from addiction to take positive control of their lives.
New River Cove's mission is to educate and provide positive lifestyle choices for clients with alcoholism and other addictive disorders. Our multimedia conference center provides ample space for resident education and staff development and training. We provide a quiet, private, natural environment that enhances spiritual growth and allows us the opportunity to partner with you to restore physical and emotional health.
New River Cove blends traditional 12 step treatment with holistic and experiential program components. Individualized treatment plans are developed with each client to achieve the goal of mental, emotional, spiritual and physical harmony. Length of stay is flexible based on each clients very individualized needs.
We provide medically supervised detoxification when indicated. We also strongly encourage the participation of our clients loved ones in our Family Program. New River Coves treatment program allows a length of stay of up to 90 days to ensure that all clients have the time needed to meet their individualized treatment goals.

Prior to discharge a plan is formulated with each client designed to aid their successful transition back to their home and community. To arrange admission or for additional information, please call us today at our toll free number 1-866-850-2683.
