Rehab Center: Mark Houston Recovery Womens Center

Description: At The Mark Houston Recovery Center for Women, we believe that female alcoholics/drug addicts can have an experience and be shown how to live a sober, responsible life that is characterized by permanent sobriety, self respect, and hope for the future. While The Mark Houston Recovery Center for Women is NOT a drug and alcohol treatment facility, families and residents alike will find that we are the next logical step for those who continue to struggle with active drug and alcohol rehab addiction. What we do works where others have failed (see our 12 Month Guarantee). Our staff members are highly skilled, competent women who have first-hand experience dealing with drug and alcohol addiction and recovery, and have the capacity to transmit that experience. The MHR Center for Women is leading the way in guiding women with alcoholism, drug addiction, and Dual Diagnosis/Co-Occurring disorders in having an EFFECTIVE drug and alcohol rehab experience that leads to permanent sobriety and a life of abundance. Through the application of the following actions all taking place in a safe, secure, beautiful setting in the Hill Country outside Austin, Texas, our female residents stay clean and sober:

- * Work the holistic spiritual based 12 steps
